

Sunday Source

LIFE + LEISURE

SUNDAY, JUNE 4, 2006

M6 SUNDAY, JUNE 4, 2006

OUR PICKS

➤
Sankofa Dance Theater performs at Dance Africa. Opens Monday. (See On Stage, next page.)

◀
Eric McGehearty's "Integrated Notions" is shown in Transformation. Opens Monday. (See Exhibits, this page.)

CLOCKWISE FROM TOP: BY VINCE VALITUTTI — TWENTIETH

heavy-rock granddads Black Sabbath, Cream and Blue Cheer. Singer Andrew Stockdale conjures up so much Sabbath you might swear he's channeling the ghost of Ozzy's past. Black Cat, 1811 14th St. NW. $13. 202-667-7960.

!!! — Friday at 9:30 p.m. Pronounced "chk-chk-chk," the New York funk-punks are known for noisy extended grooves. With multimedia

[Exhibits]

TRANSFORMATION — Opens Monday. Through June 29. A juried exhibit by artists with disabilities. Includes an outdoor steel sculpture by Mark di Suvero. Kennedy Center, Terrace Gallery, 2700 F St. NW. Free. 202-467-4600.

LISTEN TO THE STREAM AND A SENSE OF SNOW — Opens Tuesday

drawings and photographs by artists, including V. Johnson, Jacob Lawrence, Van Der Zee and H. Baltimore Museum of Art, 100 Museum Dr., Baltimore. Seniors $8, students free, first Thursday free. 443-573-1700.

DRIVEN — See Car page.